TODAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Associated Press Despatches to The Times.

THE TIMES OFFICE,
Victoria, 4.30 p. m., Nov. 17.

RUSSIAN AND AUSTRIAN INTERESTS INVOLVED.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.—The newspapers here express the hope that the Servia-Bulgarian war will be localized; but they admit that Russia's interests are opposed to those of Austria. Austria, they say, is bound to support Servia, while Russia is inclined to run Bulgaria, as is evident from the fact that she had permitted the exportation of 18,000,000 cartridges from Tula to Bulgaria, having hitherto prohibited their shipment.

THE SULTAN'S AUTHORITY IN THE BALKANS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 15.—The Servian minister here in notifying the Sultan of the outbreak states that it was between Servia and Bulgaria, and adheres to Servia's former declaration in favor of the restoration of the status of quo ante, and of strengthening the Sultan's authority in Balkans.

TURKEY MUST PAY DUTIES.

PHILLIPPOPOLIS, Nov. 15.—Custom house officers at Bourbas, in eastern Roumelia, have been notified that henceforth imports from Turkey must pay the same duties as imports from other foreign countries.

GERMANS ARE EXPULSED.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—An order for the expulsion of five German-Americans from the Island of Fahr was signed by Herr Hansen, district judge at Tondern. The names of the expelled are Ingwer George Jappene, Ocke Edward, Nickelson Minert, Hemerch Riewarts, and Peter Anderson.

ENGLAND RESPONSIBLE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—Journal de St. Petersburg hints that England, by delaying the meeting of the Balkan Conference, is responsible for the outbreak of war between Servia and Bulgaria.

SERVIANS ATTACK BULGARIANS.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Six battalions of Servian Infantry, two battines artillery and two squadrons of cavalry to-day attacked two battalions of regular and irregular Bulgarian troops. The Bulgarians lost 34 killed and wounded. Servian troops under Col. Michkovitch have occupied Tearsbrod, sustaining a small loss. Fifty Bulgarians were captured and sent to the fortress at Belgrade. Topalovich, with the Morava division, is operating against Tirn. Generals Michkovitch and Benecky, commanding Drena and Shumadja divisions, are advancing on the Dragoman pass. General Jovanovitch is in command of the Danube division, which is held as a reserve force, at Belapalanka. Djuknitch is leading the Timok division against Belogradshik. Each division consists of 20,000 men. King Milan before the advance commenced, observed to Col. Benecky that Sofia would be captured within three days.

The weather is splendid for campaigning in Bulgaria, but the troops suffer from cold at night owing to inadequate covering. In an interview here to-day the Servian minister said he believed that if the Balkan conference desired to stop war between Servia and Bulgaria his government would acquiesce. After the capture of Sofia, Servia, he said desired commercial treaty with Bulgaria and facilities for trade with that country. She also desired to annex part of Bulgaria which the Servians occupied when the Berlin conference met. Servia, he continued, did not intend the conquest of Bulgaria, and there was therefore no reason why the powers should interfere. He dwelt upon superiority of the rifle used by the Servians over the weapons possessed by the Bulgarians.

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT.

Col. Djuknitch, commanding Timok division, drove the Bulgarians from the entrenchments at Kiela and captured one hundred prisoners. The total Servian loss is two officers, fifty men and 200 wounded. Official report from Col. Benesky says that after a brilliant charge the Servians carried four Bulgarian redoubts beyond Tsaribrod. Col. Djuknitch with the Timok division has taken Kiela. The Servian troops continue advancing everywhere and have captured 400 prisoners. The Servians have lost 200 wounded and 50 killed. A great battle is now being fought in the direction of Dragoman. After desperate fighting yesterday the Servian troops occupied the position at Raptcha. The losses on both sides are heavy. This victory has enabled the Servians to turn the very difficult and rocky gorge of Dragoman pass, and the Bulgarians after gallant resistance, retreated to Bliouitza where an important engagement is expected to take place to-day, which will probably decide the fate of Sofia.

In the fight with the war vessel belonging to King Thebaw, the fire from the British caused 200 of the crew of the Burmese vessel to jump overboard. The British then boarded the vessel and proceeded up the river with her. It is reported that 3000 troops are stockaded at Fort Kuligion, which occupies a high dominating position overhanging the river at Minhla.

LONDON PRESS ON THE SITUATION.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The Morning Post says: That the French budget shows a deficit of a million francs.

The Standard, commenting on the outbreak of hostilities between Servia and Bulgaria, says: If war be limited in the Balkans we see the beginning, but no human intelligence can pretend to set the limits to the area or intensity of the fire.

The Daily Telegraph says: In consequence of the massacre of the Christians at Kirlechai, a Mussulman rising against the Bulgarians is imminent.

THE PEOPLE'S WILLIAM

Receives an Enthusiastic Greeting in West Calder, Scotland, To-day.

EDINBURGH, Nov. 17.—West Calder is to-day handsomely decorated in honor of the visit of the Hon. Mr. Gladstone. Great enthusiasm prevails and crowds of people line the streets. Mr. Gladstone arrived at 2.20 p. m., and a delegation of the newly enfranchised electors presented him with an address, which was received with tremendous cheers and unbounded enthusiasm. When Mr. Gladstone entered the hall to deliver his second speech of the parliamentary campaign, it was literally packed with people who had been there for over two hours.

A BULGARIAN APPEAL.

VIENNA, Nov. 17.—Prince Alexander, of Bulgaria, has sent a note to the powers, as follows: Bulgaria, after exposing the Roumelian cause, did her utmost to comply with the decision of the Ambassadors and to prevent agitation. She sees now a Servian invasion, without Servia sending through the Porte, the only competent channel, an ultimatum to comply with international law. Will Europe, who is anxious, and Turkey who is jealous for the integrity of her empire allow Servia to infringe on the principle of that integrity, in which they laid stress in the case of Bulgaria, under circumstances of much less gravity. The powers know whence the aggression emanated. Bulgaria, as a vassal, is unable to declare war and has addressed the Sultan directly on the matter without getting a reply. She has ordered M. Isaniff, her special envoy at Constantinople, to demand a reply from Said Pasha, Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs. Bulgaria has not violated the integrity of Turkey, because Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia belong to Turkey, while Servia is an independent state and violates the integrity of Turkey for territorial aggrandizement, at the expense of Bulgaria, to satisfy Servian ambition and egotism. Bulgaria relies upon the sense of justice of the powers, as Europe must speak the last word on the question.

A DESPERATE BATTLE.

BELGRADE, Nov. 17.—General Topelovitch, with the Moravian division, had a desperate battle with the Bulgarians at Tzrna, where the latter were totally defeated. The Servian troops fought with great gallantry, and they captured two guns and many prisoners. Three battalions of Bulgarians were surrounded and a battalion of Bulgarian volunteers, stationed at a point on the Timok river capitulated without firing a gun, to Col. Djuknitch, commanding the Servians in the Timok division. The Bulgarians yesterday evacuated their fortified position at Dragoman, which the Servians attacked on Sunday. The details of the capture of Dragoman Pass, by the Servians show that the Drina and Shumadja divisions, under Colonels Michkovitch and Benecky were engaged and attacked Bulgarians in force, completely routing them. Hordes of Bulgarians laid down their arms, being panic-stricken, several guns were captured and the Pass abandoned.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—The Post says that only Austria was able to perform a task unpleasant to her of restraining Servia. The result of the present complications will be a Russian descent on Bulgaria. If Turkey interferes Mr. Gladstone will raise the cry of Turkish atrocities and upset the Conservative government. Thus the confusion of Europe will be most complete.

The Frankfort Gazette says it will be a miracle if Austria and Russia are not drawn into the struggle.

The Cologne Gazette says it is convinced that the Turks will be driven from Europe.

VICTORY FOR THE SERVIANS.

BELGRADE, Nov. 17.—The Servian division in marching on Widdin, gave battle to the Bulgarians near Widdin, and inflicted upon them a crushing defeat. Loss, heavy on both sides. The Servians captured one thousand prisoners.

INVASION OF MACEDONIA.

ATHENS, Nov. 17.—The invasion of Macedonia by the Greek army is imminent.

A SENSIBLE PROPOSAL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Gen. Sheridan, in his annual report, says of the Union question: On account of the rapid growth of our western settlements, the army is obliged in some places to protect white people from Indians, while in other places it is protecting Indians in their persons and property from whites. The Indians are the richest people in this country as communities. Their reservations includes some of the best lands and if divided among heads of families each family would have thousands of acres. I would recommend that each family be given and located on 320 acres, now provided for them by law, in case of actual settlement. The government should then condemn all the balance of each reservation, buy it in at $1.25 per acre, and with the proceeds purchase government bonds, to be held in trust by the Interior Department, only giving the Indians each year the interest on the bonds for their support.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The Secretary of the Interior and Assistant Secretary Jenks, to-day heard the argument in the case of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co. vs. Milford & Miller, on appeal from the decision of the Commissioner of the Land Office. The matter at issue is of greatest interest to railroad managers, as it involves the right of withdrawal on the part of the government of lands for indemnity purposes. The Commissioner decided that such withdrawals were illegal, and revoked the order withdrawing the lands included in the indemnity grant to the Northern Pacific. From that decision the Railroad Company appealed to the Secretary.

A Charlottetown, P. E. I., dispatch gives the story of the mysterious murder of the boy Fitzpatrick, for which two young men named Fisher and Robertson are under arrest. Fisher turned Queen's evidence and says Robertson and himself were driving home, and had a gun with them. The Fitzpatrick boy was passing along the road, when Robertson said: "I will crack a cap on the gun and frighten him." In another moment the gun was discharged, when Robertson, who had fired it, said: "My God, I didn't know it was loaded."

The Pall Mall Gazette has been giving the younger men a reading on how to choose wives. The morning is the time, according to this authority, in which to decide whether a woman will make a good wife or not. Beware of the young woman who complains of being cold in the morning, who looks sickly, who comes down late, who appears to have dressed hastily, who languishes a whole forenoon over a couple of letters to an absent sister or schoolfellow. She will not make a good wife. She will be a bore and a slattern.

The British Parliament will be summoned to meet in January and will then adjourn. During the interim, if there is a large Liberal majority, the present ministry will resign and a new ministry will be formed. If the Conservatives should have a majority in the new Parliament, they will prepare a programme for the session. If the parties are equally divided the Conservatives will retain office.

RIEL'S EXECUTION

The Condemned Man's Last Moments on Earth.

He Desires to Make a Farewell Speech, but is Restrained.

He Dies Without a Struggle—Witnessed by Only a Few.

REGINA, Nov. 16.—At his execution, Riel wore a loose woolen surtout, gray trousers, and woolen shirt. On his feet were moccasins, the only feature of his dress that partook of his Indian blood. He received the notice to proceed to the scaffold in the same composed manner shown on the preceding night on receiving warning of his fate. The prisoner decided only a moment before starting for the scaffold not to make a speech. This was owing to the earnest solicitations of both the priests attending him. He displayed an indignation at the last moment to make an address but Pere Andre, reminded him of his promise, and he then arose and walked toward the executioner repeating his prayers to the last moment. The final words escaping him being "Merci, Jesu." He died without a struggle. Only twenty persons were permitted within the confines of the barracks to witness the execution, and it was certainly performed with decorum and dispatch. His body was taken in charge by the coroner, and the verdict rendered.

The scaffold had been erected with the contracted enclosure immediately in the rear guardhouse and the only view of which was through a window immediately under the rafters. The last sacrament was taken by the condemned man within the guardhouse proper and near the opening which led to the scaffold. He responded to Latin prayers with a full clear voice on bended knees. When the moment came for him to rise and have his hands and arms pinioned he kept looking up steadily, repeating the prayers. He then walked through the contracted room and down the narrow stairway with his face turned away from the few civilians and soldiers who stood about the doorway. When he was about to take his place on the trap the deputy sheriff asked if he had anything to say. He turned to his confessor, Pere Andre, and inquired, "Shall I not say a few words?" "No," quickly responded the priest. "Make this last sacrifice and you will be rewarded." Riel turned and remarked, "I have nothing more to say." There was some delay in adjusting the noose, but Riel did not remark upon it, and as the white cap was closed over him he was to be heard distinctly praying. During the night he addressed a letter to his mother and sister. He added a codicil to his will specifying that he desired his body to be laid beside his father's in St. Boniface, at Winnipeg, which request will be carried out, Pere Andre going there with his remains in a few days. His body was buried beneath the scaffold. He prayed for his friends in the United States and again for his friends in Quebec. He prayed for his lawyers, speaking of their efforts in going to England in his behalf. The attending father said it was his duty to pray for his enemies. He replied, "That is so," and at once began praying in English for the Premier of Canada; but in his prayer he asked that the government might soon be relieved from his rule. He partook of a light repast at 11 o'clock, and ate no breakfast, which caused him to show at one time signs of faintness; but he afterwards completely recovered from this and displayed no effort in mounting the ladder. His death was pronounced an easy one. Twenty minutes before he went to the scaffold he wrote the following in French. This was his final missive: "What there is too presumptuous in my writings I must say that by their presents I subordinate it entirely to the good pleasure of my God, to the doctrine of the church and to the infallible decisions of the supreme pontiff. I die a Catholic in the one only true faith."

EXECUTION EXCITEMENT.

The News of the Event Reaches Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa.

As was to be expected the news of the execution created the greatest excitement in Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa. In the first named city the excitement yesterday was almost beyond restraint. Flags were hoisted at half-mast; while people promenaded the streets shouting "Glory to Riel." At one time a conflict between the Catholics and Orangemen was feared. Sir Hector Langevin's residence was in danger, but the police came to its rescue. An immense meeting was held in Jacques Cartier square in the evening, at which condemnation speeches were delivered against Sir John Macdonald, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir A. P. Caron, and Hon. Mr. Chapleau. Several prominent Orangemen have been "spotted" and are likely to feel the effect of the demonstration. The French citizens residing in the St. John suburbs decided to close their houses and business establishments and attend church en masse to sing solemn service for the repose of Riel's soul. The Liberal organ appears to-night draped in mourning and all its articles are most stirring. Its columns are devoted to Riel matter and it calls upon the French Canadians not to forget the martyr who was murdered. In the event of an outbreak battery "B" and a portion of the soldiery is held in readiness for immediate action. It is believed that if that battalion is called out a great disturbance would be caused as it is entirely composed of English speaking residents.

IN OTTAWA.

The Protestant Conservatives were considerably elated over what they term their triumph, and a large number of them waited on the premier and Honorable Mackenzie Bowell, minister of customs, congratulating them on the carrying out of the sentence of the court. Among the French-Canadians who are in a large minority here, there is a deep feeling of displeasure.

DEMONSTRATIONS IN MONTREAL.

On the receipt of the news of the execution in Montreal there was considerable excitement. The French-Canadian students to the number of five hundred, carrying the bier, marched through several streets of the city giving vent to cheers for Riel and denouncing Sir John Macdonald. Flags are at half-mast in many places. The City Council in the afternoon adopted a resolution to adjourn as a protest against the callous violation of the laws of justice and humanity in the execution of Riel. Portraits of Riel, Hon. Mr. Chapleau and Hon. Col. Ouimet were exposed in a window on St. James street, and an excited crowd kept the sidewalk blocked all day. Riel's picture was framed with crape and had the French flag for the background. The other two portraits were prostrate, and each had a drop of sealing-wax on the forehead, to represent Riel's blood. Underneath this picture were French inscriptions, signifying "Traitor," "Murderman," etc. There is a movement afoot to have a requiem mass for the repose of Riel's soul.

THE LUNATIC JACKSON.

A special from Winnipeg states that Jackson, Riel's lieutenant, who had been confined in the lunatic asylum, escaped across the line and wrote a letter to his sister from St. Vincent, asking her to write a letter to Sir John Macdonald, begging to shoot him (Jackson) and spare Riel.

This dispatch comes through an American channel, and at present must be accepted with caution.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT.

William Hill of Langley's Property Accidentally Killed.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 17.—Last Thursday a man named William Hill, formerly of Bismarck, Ontario, and lately on Wark's farm, Langley Prairie, while out hunting, was accidentally killed. When the body was found yesterday it was lying on one side of the log and his rifle on the opposite side. The supposition that while the deceased was walking on the log he slipped and the trigger of the gun striking the log the contents were discharged, entering at the neck. Death was probably instantaneous. The body will be taken to Ontario for burial.

BAREFACED INCONSISTENCY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—I herewith send you a few of the numerous examples I have chosen, to show the utter inconsistency of the present government and its paid mouthpiece, the Colonist. "If there is anything more than another that the government should frown down, it is Nepotism"—Colonist, June 30th, 1885.

At the present time more than one near relation of a member of the Local House holds a position in the government service, secured to him by the government, and even the premier gave a fat billet to his brother-in-law, appointing him constable at Cowichan. So much for nepotism. (The government had better study the honest meaning of this word.)

"There has been no favoritism shown in the distribution of public monies." * * "There has never been a question raised as to whether the people who were to be benefitted by the improvement were supporters or opponents"—Colonist, Nov. 14, 1885.

The above quotation, with its questionable English, is false to the very core, and bears on its face a simple falsehood. Public funds have been spent simply to aid supporters as all intelligent people know. Take Point Ellice bridge as an example. The work was executed by those that the government desired should do it; consequently they fettered all other tenderers by manipulating the plans to suit favorites, as a natural consequence throwing it out of the hands of hard-working capable men. "No favoritism shown in the distribution of public monies," what a double falsehood! Did they not invest $6000 a year in Mr. Duck, simply because he was a man that could be bought as a supporter? The greatest possible favoritism has been shown; even old and tried servants have had to make way for tricky supporters that are already unfitted for any position of public trust. To still further show the utter inconsistency of the present party in power, and the deceptive journalism they employ to try and stifle public opinion, I will quote from the Colonist of Nov. 15, 1885 to further expose the base inconsistency: "The high mission of the press is to enlighten, and if need be, to correct public opinion." I would alter that sentence to read as follows, and thereby make it quite in keeping with the two first quotations: The chief mission of the local government press is to mystify, deceive and mislead public opinion.

ANTI-DECEPTIVE.

SAFETY OF THE VICTORIA THEATRE

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—In the case of Jones vs. Victoria Theatre Co., tried in the Supreme Court, on Tuesday last, the company's superintendent, Mr. Apponyi, stated upon his oath, that there was one wall in the building in such a dangerous condition that it would either fall or would have to be taken down and reconstructed at some future day. Now, I don't think myself that there is any danger of any part of the building falling down, but I do think that the Theatre Co., in justice to themselves and the citizens of Victoria, ought to employ some person more competent than their own superintendent to inspect the work and report upon it in order that the public may be assured that the building is really safe, and that they do not endanger their lives by patronizing it. Surely when the superintendent of such a building as the Victoria Theatre declares upon his oath, that it is unsafe, it is time that the attention of the proper authorities should be called to it, and steps taken to prevent a calamity that might result in the loss of many valuable lives, before it is too late. Hoping to hear soon from someone more competent to judge such matters than Mr. Apponyi.

A CITIZEN.

Mr. Waugh Lauder, a Canadian pianist, and son of the late A. W. Lauder, M. P. P., scored a great success at his first recital before a New York audience. The performance was given in Steinway Hall and a large number of trained musicians were present.

Hindoo wives are most exemplary persons. They watch their husbands' health as a hen watches her solitary chickee, because the poor things know if they lose their husbands all their fun is over in this world, to say the least. The premium on marital longevity was Bismark's fertile idea.

The Knights of Labor still continue to boycott the Mallory Steamship company at Galveston, Tex., and the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad. All the freight trains on the Houston and Texas Central railroad are side tracked in consequence.

Cattle have increased more than three fold in the United States during the past ten years. On farms there are about 42,000,000, on ranges and range-pastures west of the Mississippi about 10,000,000 cattle grazing.

The condition of the tenantry in the Blair Lothian, Scotland, is unsettled, and the prevailing dissatisfaction is growing fast till all over Scotland. One gentleman with a rent roll of [illegible] per annum, has received [illegible] of his rent.

REPREHENSIBLE CONDUCT.

The action of the Colonist towards certain of our fellow citizens, who have become the fortunate owners of that which yet may prove to be some of the best situated lands at the terminal city of Vancouver, has evoked the condemnation of all fair and honorable minded men. Three gentlemen of this city, in May, 1884, purchased 1600 acres of land from the Hastings Saw Mill Company for the sum of $75,000. A few months later the same gentlemen, with some others, purchased the remainder of the Hastings Mills property and other lands, in the neighborhood of Coal Harbor, for the sum of $325,000, their purchases altogether aggregating $400,000. The transaction was a large one and naturally attracted some attention, but it was purely a private one, concerning only those engaged in it. The Canadian Pacific Railway Co. have arranged with these gentlemen to include the last mentioned property in their terminal city limits, and have thus given large value to it. It is manifestly an advantage that this property is owned by our fellow citizens, instead of by parties in San Francisco—as it was before its purchase—as now money invested by Eastern Canadian and American capitalists, in lots at Vancouver will remain among us, instead of going to enrich aliens. We rejoice in the good fortune of our fellow citizens, believing that individual gain becomes aggregate wealth, and must be more or less diffused for the benefit of all. The course of the Colonist towards these gentlemen has, from the first, been hostile, but lately it has outraged all decency. Not content with editorials and paragraphs containing known and wilful falsehoods, in its endeavor to depreciate the value of this property, and deter parties from investing, its editor publishes letters in its columns written by himself, pretending to be from disappointed investors. There is no question as to whether Vancouver will, or can be, a rival of Victoria involved in these editorials and letters; they are purely and simply an effort by the editor to injure the credit of his fellow citizens and embarrass them in completing a bold and promising speculation. Well may our correspondent "Victorian," in a late issue, apply the term "scoundrelism" to such conduct. The editor of the Colonist has advocated so many wildcat schemes, in which he was given promoters shares, that no one will give him credit for purity of motive in his present crusade; on the contrary, perhaps the best assistance the Coal Harbor Syndicate can have from him is the venomous opposition he is indulging in, as it proves their confidence in the intrinsic value of their property and the non-necessity of muzzling him with a bribe. His venality is so well known that no one for a moment will doubt that had he been given the "hundred lots" his paper would be doing its utmost to hasten the boom. It is a disgrace to journalism, that a newspaper should be prostituted to such base purpose, as the extortion of toll for its editor in the shape of "dead head" shares, in private investments, under penalty of its columns being used to cause disaster to the parties concerned. An ugly name is given to such conduct.

There is another aspect of the conduct of the editor of the Colonist, which more directly interests the public. It is certain that there will be, during the coming winter, if there is not already, a plethora of labor and consequent distress, and it is highly important to create employment for our working men at the earliest possible moment. Now whether or not the city of Victoria will remain the commercial metropolis, the city of Vancouver will certainly become an important place, and in its erection employ a large amount of labor. The Colonist editor, therefore, in his endeavor to delay the development of the place, by serious falsehood, as to the intended operations and views of the C. P. R., is guilty of positive cruelty to the working classes. But what cares this rapacious and selfish man about the working man's interest? The actual facts of the case are as follows: A proposal was made to the local syndicate last winter through Mr. Beatty, on behalf of the C. P. R. to donate 200 feet of the shorefront and one-half the remainder of their property, in consideration of the company extending the road to Coal Harbor and English Bay. Mr. Beatty declined to obligate the company to include all the land granted within the limits of the companies terminal city, or to define the limits of the city, or to guarantee the construction and maintenance of wharves and other works upon the property, or in such a position relatively to it as would insure its value being enhanced. His proposal was therefore declined. This spring negotiations were re-opened, and the C. P. R. Company have now granted all, and more than the local syndicate demanded from Mr. Beatty, in respect to the limitation of the site of the city, construction and maintenance of works on Coal Harbor, and have accepted in lieu of 200 feet frontage, and half the remainder of the property, the right of way and one-third the remainder of the property. The only reference to the shorefront being an undertaking on their part that, under no circumstances, are they to carry the Pile within 375 feet of certain portions of it. The agreement between the parties is consummated and registered at the Land Registry office, New Westminster. It binds the company to register the plan of their terminal city on or before the 1st of next month, and the plan is now prepared and embraces the following sections in lots, namely: Numbers 181, 196, the townsite of Granville, lot 185, and a small portion of the C. P. R. property south of False Creek. The company has bound itself to construct, and forever maintain docks, sufficient for the commerce of the place and for railway purposes, of a character to accommodate first-class ocean-going vessels, to place them on the shore line of Coal Harbor, between lots 181 and 185. They have also bound themselves to allow the use of such docks to merchants and others at the rates of wharfage customary charged at ocean ports.

It will be remembered that the Colonist represented Mr. Van Horne as having extorted from private property owners very much more severe terms than were previously proposed, and that thus he had laid the proverbial straw upon the camel's back. Now, so far as that being the case, we are in a position to assert that the private property owners have actually surrendered less than one-fifth of what Mr. Beatty asked, and not more than one-third of what they had themselves voluntarily offered; while they now receive in return substantial guarantee and important advantages previously refused by the Railway Company. It will be seen therefore, that the difference between the terms offered by Mr. Beatty and those just concluded is immensely in favor of the private owners. It may be gratifying to the Colonist to know that they are well pleased with the completed arrangement, and that the feeling and relations now existing between the C. P. R. Company and themselves are of the most harmonious and satisfactory character.

It will thus be seen that the limits of the City of Vancouver are now clearly defined, as much so as the limits of the City of Victoria. The plans and intentions of the company have been so far modified and changed by the final and satisfactory arrangement made with the private property holders, that they have resolved to concentrate their whole efforts on Coal Harbor, and have for the present, abandoned the idea of erecting other than the workshops and construction of sidings on the south side of False creek, on their English Bay property. Their wharves, passenger depots, freight sheds, offices and the hotel, which will all be built on the Coal Harbor peninsula, are to be proceeded with immediately. Instead of giving publicity to these facts and allowing his readers the advantage of this highly important information, the editor of the Colonist, for his own sordid and vindictive ends, deliberately and wilfully misstates the position of matters. His game is about played, however. The actual commencement of the construction of wharves and other works is at hand, and his readers who may consider that they have lost an opportunity for profitable investment, in being deceived by him, can then make their reckoning with that individual.

We have no action to give parties as to investing. Whether or not the facts that this great road, having its ocean terminus at Vancouver, with all that involves in work shops, car factories, ocean and inland commerce, will create a city and give enhanced value to land we leave to everyone to judge for themselves. We believe the growth of a city at Coal Harbor will in no way injure Victoria, and we are not so intensely sectional as to desire that there shall be no such city. It is our duty, at any rate, to give to our readers the facts that the actual site of the city has been determined, and that Vancouver has now a local habitation, as well as a name.

At a recent wedding in England, given at the country-place of the bride's uncle in Northamptonshire, the usual order of things was reversed, after the wedding breakfast the guests and the host and hostess drove away leaving the recently married pair to enjoy their honeymoon in comfortable seclusion. This is a new departure in wedding etiquette and might be adopted in this country, always supposing that pater and mater familias are easy-going people, and have a home in another country ready to receive them.

Had Mr. Blake's scheme been adopted by a faint-hearted Government it is hard to say what might have happened. But it is quite clear, to begin with, that British Columbia would have been lost to Canada; and that the trade of the North-West Plains would have been diverted into the hands of the Americans, since they would have enjoyed the carrying of it for six months in the year, and the control of its carriage for the other six.

A Pretty Woman's Secret.

Fear of discovery, when she resorts to false hair and dyes, is a source of constant anxiety to her. The very persons from whom she most desires to hide the waning of her charms are the ones most likely to make the discovery. But there is no reason why she should not regain and retain all the beauty of hair that was her pride in youth. Let her use AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and, not only will her hair cease to fall out, but a new growth will appear where the scalp has been denuded; and locks that are turning gray, or have actually grown white, will return to their pristine freshness and brilliance of color. Cooling the Cellars.

[American Agriculturist.]

A great mistake is commonly made in ventilating cellars and milk houses. The object of ventilation is to keep the cellars cool and dry, but this object often fails of being accomplished by a common mistake, and instead, the cellar is made both warm and damp. A cool place should never be ventilated, unless the air admitted is cooler than the air within, or is at least as cool as that, or a very little warmer. The warmer the air, the more moisture it holds in suspension. Necessarily, the cooler the air the more this moisture is condensed and precipitated. When a cool cellar is aired on a warm day, the entering air being in motion appears cool; but as it fills the cellar, the cooler air with which it becomes mixed chills it, the moisture is condensed, and dew is deposited on the cold walls, and may often be seen running down them in streams. Then the cellar is damp, and soon becomes moldy. To avoid this the windows should only be opened late at night—the last thing before retiring. There is no need to fear that the night air is unhealthful; it is as pure as the air of midday, and is really drier. The cool air enters the apartment during the night and circulates through it. The windows should be closed before sunrise in the morning and kept closed and shaded through the day. If the air of a cellar is damp it may be thoroughly dried by placing in it a peck of fresh lime in an open box. A peck of lime will absorb about seven pounds, or more than three quarts of water, and in this way a cellar or milk room may soon be dried, even in the hottest weather. A bushel of lime absorbs twenty-seven pounds of water, and still appears as a dry powder. In this condition it will be very useful to spread over the garden or lawn, or around fruit trees, or it may be used for whitewash. This precaution is often necessary in the dairy, because of the prevalence, where air is damp, of mildews and the various forms of mold. The orange and red kinds of mold especially, which sometimes form upon the cream, have a most injurious effect upon the butter.

Kansas Agricultural College.

The new states read lessons to the old ones not seldom. Among the most promising state agricultural schools in the Union is that of Kansas. It occupies two farms, of 171 and 160 acres. Buildings worth $100,000 are erected. The stock, tools, furniture and land of the farm are valued at $50,000. The annual income from the endowment fund is $55,000, meeting all the expenses of instruction.

This beautiful college is open to both sexes. Tuition is free. Industrial training is given to young men in carpentry, iron working and other branches, and to young women in telegraphy, type-writing, sewing and cooking. The cooking department is conducted on scientific principles. The girls who go out from the Kansas State college won't give people nasty boiled black coffee, or green and yellow soda biscuit and tried mutton.

The course of instruction is for both the brains and the hands. Besides general farming, the working part of the course includes flower culture, fruit gardening and stock raising. Not much wonder that Kansas is heaving ahead so heavily.

Bathing.

About this time of year that farmer who doesn't habitually wash himself all over isn't a pleasant man to live in the same house with. He—he—well, the subject is not a pleasant one, and we won't get any closer to it. It is not what the ladies call "nice" to wear any of the same clothing at night that one does in the day time. It is always uncivilized, and this time of year it is simply indecent. Wives, have ready for your men clean, cool night garments. Farmers, when the day's work is over and you are ready to retire, wash your bodies thoroughly all over. Give yourself a good scrubbing in plenty of soap and water. The farmer who will go to bed in her weather with the dust and perspiration of the day still upon him is not fit to sleep in a bed. He is not in fact a civilized human being. Not Off with the layers of dirt that have encrusted you during the day. Then you will smell as sweet and sleep as sound as a clean baby. You will rise in the morning feverless and in good temper. You will be ready to do a solid day's work with the thermometer even in the nineties.

July Crop Reports.

Corn promises fine crop, except along the upper Mississippi. Cut worms have been on the rampage rather more than usual, and there was much inconvenience from defective seed. The natural average increase of acreage of corn sown from year to year is 2 to 3 per cent. This year, owing to failure of wheat, it is fully 6 per cent.

The general average of wheat advances in July from 83 to nearly 85 per cent. of a full crop. The whole wheat crop, the winter and spring seeding together, will not fall short of 500,000,000 bushels.

Present condition of potato crop, 97.

The condition of cotton has advanced from 82 in June to 88 in July. A slightly diminished acreage of tobacco is sown, with prospects for a fair crop. On the whole, let the farmer thank his Lord and take courage.

Things to Do and to Know.

The great cause of spoiled canned fruit is putting up that which is not entirely fresh.

Young grasshoppers have made their appearance in the far west again by the million.

The Hessian fly has done much damage to wheat in some of the counties of northern New York.

A loose, neglectful master makes a hired man of precisely the same kind, says The New York Tribune.

Millions of young grasshoppers have appeared in the southwest, and are eating their way through things.

A New Jersey doctor thinks that the use of the lawn mower will give young ladies that sort of an easy lazy neat.

It is the easiest thing in the world to have horse radish. Plant a few roots in moist soil, and, like the poor, it will be always with you. But to secure fine—none entirely, manure and the removal of old stock every spring are all essential. Don't have any large roots for another year, as they will be worthless.

Mrs. Hill, of California, has hit on the best thing yet. She raises pyrethrum, the plant from which the yellow insect powder is made. She has this year 100 acres set to it. She has a water mill where she grinds the plants to powder. It may be remarked that Mrs. Hill is worth $500,000, which she has mostly made herself.

No Time to Soothe Her Own Baby.

[Chicago Tribune.]

Nurse (to fashionable mother)—The baby is very restless, ma'am. I can't do anything with her.

F. M.—She's teething, I suppose.

N.—Yes'm. I think if you was to take her to your arms a little while it might soothe her.

F. M.—O, impossible. I haven't time to spare. I'm just making ready to attend a meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Give baby some paregoric.

Ten Ragged Schools.

There are now in London 187 ragged schools, in which are gathered upwards of 80,000 children, most of whom were taken from the lowest state of poverty.

It Doesn't Tear Up.

During all seasons of the year, it is said, the earth at Yakutsk, Siberia, is frozen from the depth of fifty feet to that of about 1,000 feet.

Many of the plants in the Tuileries gardens are 200 and 300 years old.

HOME ITEMS AND TOPICS.

—"All your own fault
If you remain sick when you can Get hop bitters that cures—Well."

—The weakest woman, smallest child, and sickest invalid can use hop bitters with safety and great good.

—Old men tottering around from Rheumatism, kidney trouble or any weakness will be made almost new by using hop bitters.

☞ My wife and daughter were made healthy by the use of hop bitters and I recommend them to my people.—Methodist Clergyman.

Ask any good doctor if hop
Bitters are not the best family medicine
On earth!

—Malarial fever, Ague and Biliousness will leave every neighborhood as soon as hop bitters arrive.

—"My mother drove the paralysis and neuralgia out of her system with hop bitters."—Ed. Oregon Sun.

☞ "Keep the kidneys healthy with hop bitters and you need not fear sickness."

—The vigor of youth for the aged and infirm in hop bitters!!!

—"At the change of life nothing equals Hop Bitters to allay all too rides incident thereto."

—"The best periodical for ladies to take monthly, and from which they will receive the greatest benefit is hop bitters."

—Thousands die annually from some form of kidney disease that might have been prevented by the use of hop bitters.

Indigestion, weak stomach, irregularities of the bowels, cannot exist when hop bitters are used.

A timely * * * use of hop
Bitters will keep a whole family
In robust health a year at little cost.

To produce real genuine sleep and child-like repose all night, take a little hop bitters on retiring.

☞ None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.

The Daily Times.

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY.

Victoria, Tuesday, Nov. 17, 1885.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

While the TIMES is always prepared to give publicity to the views of correspondents on any question of interest to the public, provided facts are given, couched in unobjectionable language, we wish it to be understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the views expressed by the writers thereof.

Nor can we give room to duplicates of letters that have appeared in our contemporaries either in this city or elsewhere in the province. Correspondents, therefore, will save time and trouble in preparing such for THE TIMES, as they will be rejected.

Our space is valuable, and brevity, as far as possible, should be observed in writing on any topic, and on one side of the sheet only.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—The Knights of Labor carried the late school election at Whatcom.

—Only the best French and San Francisco candies at the LONDON BAZAAR. *

—The Elma Anderson lost two anchors in the late tug blow at Port Townsend.

—Before purchasing Real Estate or insuring your life, see Rand Bros. *

—For a good fitting set of artificial teeth go to Dr. Hartman's dental parlors, Government street. Charges moderate.*

—Everybody to know that the LONDON BAZAAR is the cheapest place in the province for fancy goods, toys, glassware, &c. *

—Consignees by the Olympian to-day: E H Babbitt, C Hayward, A Oliver, A J Rowbotham, S Leiser, W R Anstie, Baker & F, Carne & Munsie, M Lenz, Brewster & Co.

—A grand skating carnival will be held at the Yates street roller rink on Wednesday evening, Nov. 18th, commencing at 7:30 p. m. Admission, 25 cents, use of skates 25 cents.

—The Northern Pacific people are making a diligent effort to capture the trade of British Columbia. Messrs. Buckley and Charlton have been over there for a week past. We are told that special contracts are offered at low rates and for long periods.—P. I.

—Cumyow is again in trouble. He was arrested last evening, on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by King Tye Company, and the case was in progress before the police magistrate this afternoon. He is accused of having collected money, which he failed to turn over to the firm. Cumyow did not get bail.

—Our senile but esteemed morning contemporary has Knighted Mr. George Stephen. In mentioning that gentleman's name it uses the title "Sir." The modest and unassuming President of the C. P. R. Co., will be surprised to learn that the Queen has made him a "belted Knight" without his knowledge or consent.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. Walkem, of Nanaimo, is in the city

Major Downie, the veteran prospector, returned to the city this evening.

Hon. Justice Crease came down from Nanaimo this evening.

Mr. G. B. Gordon, barrister, formerly of Winnipeg and now of Farwe", is in the city en route for San Francisco.

The Amelia brought the following passengers from Nanaimo: Mrs Capt Rudlin, Miss Wilcox, Mrs Stewart, Mrs Gran, Mr & Mrs Carmichael, Mrs Burrell, Hon Justice Crease, Lancashire, Major Downie, Harrison, Dawson, Green, Dr Walkem, Walker, Priest McFarlane.

The Olympian brought the following passengers to-day: H Hyde, R Hewett, J Miller, M F Wright, H W Wilson, J Bugo, J McKenzie, J Moor, Mrs Tunnahill, E Hutcheson, T Grosvenor, L Walker, J P Dudley, wife and daughter, Miss Allen, J Pickard, W Collings, G Wessels, C Barringer, P Craig, F L Boyan, C Howard, B Carr, S Gulliver, F W Bert and wife, Miss Norris, Miss Chester, Miss Owen, Daisy Chetter, Freddie Bert, Mrs O H Cole, F C Grant, T E Curtis and wife, J Hanson, Dr Tayler, J Stewart T W Calhoun.

MARINE NOTES.

Two schooners and a ship passed Race Rocks to-day, bound out.

The tug Pilot is cruising down the Straits, waiting for a tow.

This forenoon there was a strong northerly gale in the Straits.

THE BURGH MYSTERY.

The prisoner, Richard E. Proctor, held on a charge of being implicated in the murder of Burgh, the owner of the sloop Fleetwing, was committed to-day to stand his trial. A mass of testimony has been taken, most circumstantial. It is not probable that the prosecution will be ready to proceed at the next assizes, which open next week. Additional evidence is looked for from the north and Proctor's partner, Craine, would prove either a material witness or figure as a principal. He should be secured, if possible, and no doubt efforts will be made in that direction.

INCREASING THEIR CAPACITY

The Messrs. Carter finding their present premises on Johnson street too contracted for their brewery purposes have purchased the Victoria flour mill property on Herald street, near Government, which is being specially fitted up for the requirements of their increasing business. The plant now being introduced is of the latest and most approved design, enabling the proprietors to turn out a superior article in both ale and porter. This step was rendered necessary in consequence of the increased demand for the beverages of the Messrs. Carter in Victoria, on the island and mainland.

VANCOUVER.

On Coal Harbor, the Terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Personal inspection and reports of Coal Harbor lands, made on application, contracts for clearing land negotiated and superintended. Large lists of most central properties and plans of townsite on application. Parties living at a distance buying through us will have the advantage of our personal inspection and report. Intending investors should come to Vancouver, when we will take pleasure in driving them over the principal roads and showing them over the townsite. We have established a free reading room for use of strangers and shall be glad if all such will make use of same on arrival here. Correspondence solicited.

FOR THE FRIENDS ABROAD.

We have been shown some very pretty hand painted Xmas cards of R. C. Janney by Messrs. J. B. Ferguson & Co. For artistic taste and execution they are the finest we have seen, and just the thing to send to the friends abroad. Go and see them.

ANOTHER MAN HELD UP

At the entrance of the C. P. R. Dining Hall, Cor. Douglas and Johnson Sts., last night Bill of Fare, went up to dinner and had, he claims, the best two-bit meal in town, and still there is room.

Always ahead—Fell & Co. have just received a supply of this season's fruit. *

PASSENGERS:

Mr and Mrs G Wynne, Mrs R E Woods, J Cuthbert, W Sinclair, R Cunningham, Geo Kenny, E C Stephens, D French, J Moffat, R H Wood, Belaile la Fore, C Sund, J W Johnson, J Fraser, J H Peabley, J N Boccken, F Merritt, F Brentzen, J Clayton, Thos Scales, Capt W Gilbert, two Chinamen and two Indians. Among the number are the last of the Lorne Creek miners, the mines having shut down for the winter.

THE FREIGHT

brought down consisted of a large quantity of oil from Skidegate, about 32 tons of salt salmon, 180 barrels, from R. Cunningham; also oil, furs and 6,000 feet of lumber. Mr. Cunningham brought down three live bears, which he will sell to some person who wants to start a menagerie. J. Clayton had on board two tons of Bella Coola potatoes and six tons of furs and oil. The firm of McDowell, McNeil & McDowell sent sixty-six cases of fresh clams—their first shipment from Bella Bella. The Hudson Bay Company had a small shipment of furs and oil, and several small shipments of furs and about ten thousand feet of lumber came from Rivers Inlet.

ROUGH WEATHER

was experienced throughout the whole of the trip, which, however, was made successfully and in the usual time. On Saturday, 14th, the steamer Bonita was met in Queen Charlotte's Sound bound for Alaska, and on Sunday afternoon, the steamer Teeser was met in Johnston's Straits, on the other side of Seymour Narrows. Purser Jagers was entrusted with about $4000 in gold dust, while a considerable sum no doubt carried by returning miners.

HOLDING COURT.

At the time the steamer left, Judge Elliott was holding a court at the Skeena. The Indian council has of late been arrogating to itself supreme authority and interfering with the right not only of Indians but white men. The conduct of the council, in one or two cases, where Indians over whom it had no jurisdiction, were fined and imprisoned, is being investigated by Judge Elliott, and if it results in curbing the propensity of the semi-civilized red man to lord it over his fellows it will be of great benefit to the settlements and restore the confidence of the miners and traders in the supremacy of the law.

THE TEASER SKIPS

To Another Sphere of Usefulness, Unknown to Interested Parties.

A rumor has obtained currency in the streets to-day that the "Teaser," of which Captain William Moore, of this city, was reported to be owner, without his knowledge, or that of others interested, has been transferred to other waters. In other words she has been surreptitiously taken away, but by whom is not yet positively known. The Teaser cleared on Friday morning for Roche Harbor, San Juan Island ostensibly for a cargo of lime. It is reported that parties in the city who are pecuniarily interested in the Teaser, suspecting that there was something mysterious about her movements, dispatched the Daisy in pursuit. No trace, however, could be discovered of the truant vessel.

THE TEASER IS SEEN IN JOHNSTON'S STRAITS.

About 9:30 o'clock on Sunday morning the Barbara Boscowitz, on her downward trip, passed the Teaser in Johnston's Straits, north of Seymour Narrows, under steam and making for the north. It is supposed by some that the run-away craft is making for Sitka, Wrangel, the Yonkon river, or some other remote port in that far-off country. When the Boscowitz passed her Harry Moore, was on deck the Teaser and waived his hat to Capt. Jagers, who returned the salutation. The impression at the time on board the Boscowitz was that the movements of the Teaser were very suspicious. It has been learned that Messrs. Turner, Beeton & Co., of this city are pecuniarily interested in the Teaser to a considerable. Capt. Moore is in the city. It is said that he disclaims any knowledge whatever of the vessel or her strange movements.

Great excitement, holding the major portion of the Teaser's stock. A number of others in this city are likewise interested, but not in a very heavy sum.

The Teaser was built in this city in the autumn of 1884, since which time, with the exception of slight interruptions, she has been plying between Victoria and New Westminster, where she made connection with the Adelaide for Yale and intermediate river ports.

"WOLF, WOLF."

There is pretty good reason for believing that the reported attempt at highway robbery on Friday night did not take place. The young man, who told such a straight story about the assault, without even blushing in its narration, it is alleged, on good authority, was out "on a racket" on the night in question, and to account for his absence from home, concocted the story to deceive those who might require an explanation. Our reporter, among others, was deceived and published the report, believing it to be true. There would seem to be a mania in the city just now for the cry of "wolf, wolf," when there is no wolf. Those guilty of such a reprehensible practice should be punished, as the effect of these alarming stories is injurious to the city and calculated to prejudice the minds of the citizens against the usefulness of the police force.

A SLOOP WRECKED.

The ten-ton sloop Sea Lion, Captain Murphy, engaged in the cordwood trade, was blown ashore last Tuesday evening, during the southeast gale which then prevailed, this side of Race Rocks, and in the vicinity of the spot where the "21st of May" went ashore two years ago. Pilots Thompson and McAllister have been searching the coast for the past two days for the captain, who has not yet been found. It is not known whether he has been drowned or got ashore and wandered off. The sloop is considerably broken up, having her bottom smashed on both sides. Capt. Murphy is well known, and was somewhat eccentric. He built the first house up the river a few years ago.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

Frank Davis was arrested last night by Officer Walker on a charge of entering the Pritchard House with intent to steal. The officer watched Davis' movements for some time, and saw him going to different rooms and trying the locks with keys he carried in his pocket. He experimented on both flats but was unsuccessful. He was taken in charge about 3:30 this morning, and will have an opportunity to account for burglarious conduct in the police court to-morrow.

RED POCKET BOOK.

The romantic melo drama, in six acts, entitled "The Red Pocket Book," will be presented tonight at the Victoria, by the Bert Drama Co. The scene of the play is laid in France, and the play abounds in thrilling incidents.

PEACE RIVER MINES.

The Output for the Past Season—Future Outlook.

The output of the Peace River mines for the past season was about the same as usual. Twenty-three miners' licenses were issued in all; about forty men were in the camp during the summer; fair wages were obtained for the work performed. The outlook for the future is considered better than for the past season. Five white men and one Chinaman are wintering in the camp.

The Vitel Creek bed rock flume company did not do quite as well as usual. In this claim a large piece of arquite was found, weighing nearly six ounces and measuring 3½x2 inches. It is now in the hands of Mr. W. Wilson of this city. This would be an excellent specimen to send to the London Colonial exhibition, as this metal is a rare one.

Messrs. Vitel and Halleit worked for the summer on what is known as Gicome's bar, on the Nation river, and did very well, but they say that if they had had a good supply of water they could have made an ounce a day to the hand.

Quite a number of miners are wintering at the FORKS OF SKEENA.

The Indians are said to be peaceable. The Hudson Bay Company are building a fine store at this place. A teacher had just arrived at the Forks from the Episcopal missions, to engage in missionary work.

Mr. Crosby visited Kispiax, with a missionary, whom he intended to have stationed at that place, but as he was not wanted by the natives, they went to Kitsa-yukla where the missionary was left, Mr. Crosby returning to the coast.

THE LORNE CREEK MINES

did not pan out as well as was expected, only a few of the companies having made wages. It was understood that Mr. Graham, gold commissioner, at that camp, had been removed and was as far as Port Essington, on his way down, but having met instructions from the department he at once returned to the Forks of Skeena where he will winter. Owing to the troubles in the past it is necessary that some one clothed with authority should be stationed at that point.

It is said that Mr. Cunningham brought down from Port Essington three bears, possessed of the ability to sing and dance. If this be so they are rare specimens of the brain tribe, and could entertain in opera bare (bear) instead of opera bouffe, but after all there is little difference.

POLICE COURT.

(Before E. Johnson, S. M.)

Wm. Logan, and Lucy, a Cadboro Bay Indian, drunk; fined $5 or one week.

Mary, a Songish Indian, in possession of a bottle of gin, pleaded guilty, saying she got it from a Chinaman; fined $25 or one month.

Lucy Jones, a Hyda, charged with stealing $8.75 from James, a Hyda. The evidence of two witnesses, all circumstantial, was taken, and prisoner was discharged.

Ah Yui and Ah Hin fighting on Cormorant street. One was fined $5; the other discharged.

Jas. T. Porter, Queen Chop House, selling liquor on Saturday night after 12, contrary to by-law.

Officer Whittaker, sworn:—Saw two men laying glasses down at the counter after drinking. Mr. Porter's son was behind the counter.

Wm. McKeon, sworn:—While going to the post office on Monday morning after one o'clock, saw two men drinking at the bar of the Queen Chop House; met Officer Whittaker at the door and called his attention to the matter; defendant's son was attending behind the bar. The two men who were drinking had tried the Adelphi but could not get in, and came directly across the street.

Cross-examined by Mr. Bodwell.—I know it is a hotel by reading the sign. Could not swear what they were drinking; did not see any money paid.

Mr. Porter made a statement. It was his intention to comply with the law. In the case in question the men had got refreshments and secured a bed at his place before they were served at the bar, and in giving them what they called for he thought he was acting within the law.

Case dismissed for want of evidence.

Edward Ferris, a hack-driver, allowing his horses to stand untied on Broad street. Fined $10.

Frank Davis, entering the Pritchard House with intent to commit a felony. Remanded for one day.

SUPREME COURT.

(Before Sir M. B. Begbie, C. J.)

TUESDAY, Nov. 17.

Comiark & Son vs. Findlay and McLellan.—This was a case relating to the Indian reserve, Mr. S. Perry, Mills moved for a continuation of the interim order herein, restraining defendants from erecting immigrant sheds on the Songish Indian reserve. It appears that if the Provincial Government and the Dominion Governments become parties to this suit it will at once oust the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of British Columbia. His Lordship continued the interim order until the hearing, or a further order. Mr. R. E. Jackson watched the case for the Dominion government; Mr. Irvine for the provincial government and Mr. Fell for the defendants.

It is reported that the honor of knighthood has been conferred upon Mr. Geo. Stephen, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

Joseph Rymal, ex-M. P., has been confined to his room during the last few days from the effects of a very heavy cold. He is gradually improving, and it is expected will soon have quite recovered again.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, after a full enquiry, refuses to interfere with the sentence of the eleven men convicted of conspiracy to murder William E. Symthe, an obnoxious landlord of Barbaville.

Adverse reports are current concerning the health of Mr. Gladstone. His physician forbids him to speak for more than fifteen minutes at a time. The threatened break down of Mr. Gladstone's health is depressing the Liberals.

Fine Oysters.

A large bed of oysters has just been discovered by some fishermen on the Island, the bivalves being the largest and most delicious yet seen here. They are shipped direct to Joe Levy, of the Arcade, on Government street, where they will be supplied to lovers of this favorite dish.

As a purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla act directly and promptly. A single bottle will prove its merits. Many thousands of people are yearly saved from dangerous fevers by the exercise of a little timely care in properly cleansing the system by the use of this remedy.

Avoid the harsh, irritating, griping compounds so often sold as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching, in their action.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE OLD MAN OF THE COLONIST.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—The "old man" of the Colonist has got Coal Harbor and Battery "C" on the brain. He has been battering at it now for some time. Subscribers becoming disgusted with his proceedings are rapidly dropping his paper. The old gentleman is getting nervous and shaky, he has lost his grip and is fast on the wane. It was both wicked and unkind of the Coal Harbor syndicate, in not asking him to take an interest in this rich and coveted prize, for "there is millions in it." They, however, knew their man, and knowing him well they very wisely concluded to let him slide, and slide he did. This was the unkindest cut of all, for, with thousands of dollars in sight, starving him full in the face, thus to be ignominiously cast off, left out in the cold, was more than human nature could stand. Oh Dave, where is thy sting! Let forth thy scorpion tongue with venomed spleen; strike deep into the quivering flesh of thy past and dearest friends men, who for years, helped to maintain you and keep the wolf from the very threshold of your home! However, you have had your day; your time is past; your doom is sealed; the young and juvenile blood is too invigorating for the old gentleman's nerves; they have put a curb on a lying tongue, and mend, hereafter, to keep you in check or within reasonable bounds. With all the influence you possess—which is but little—you will neither help or retard the progress of either Vancouver or Victoria. The tide will ebb and flow, in and out of our harbor, at regular intervals, all the same. The world will go ahead and prosper; the natural channel of trade will take its proper course, irrespective of what the Colonist, or the pompous, verse-mad, autocratic editor has to say. His interest is where he can make the most, where ever that may be. Bow, or from whence it comes, put money in thy purse. These are the words the immortal Shakespeare put in the mouth of Iago—a polished and winning villain. Of course Dave would not do anything of the kind; he is too honorable a gentleman, yet he is very slippery, a good deal like a well greased whirligig, revolving with lightning rapidity, here, there and no where. Put your finger on him and he is not there. Professor Sims, when last here, remarked that he was a perfect bag of wind with nothing in him, but plenty of him. A lucky strike in real estate gave him a few surplus dollars, something he has not been used to; it so completely turned his head that he could not stand prosperity. He swelled out like an inflated balloon and put on airs. The sidewalks became too narrow for him; the streets too small, and the city not being large enough, he is generally disgusted with everything. He wants a larger field in which to exercise his financial qualifications, and it is currently rumored he is about to leave us and emigrate to China. Then, like Bob Roy, he can exclaim: "Now I stand on my native heath, among the craigs and bracken." How the country will weep at his departure! To lose so valuable, upright, pious, good and moral citizen, it will really be too bad, it is something terrible; it is heart-rending to think of it. Then he was such a kind-hearted and philanthropic gentleman, one who always had his hand in his pocket ready to assist the poor and needy. An revoir, Dave.

You think that Dave is mighty proud?
You may so safely no detection;
By every one the fact's allowed;
He shows it in each look and action.
Both proud and bilious! Yes, that's my
His friendship for himself is steady.
A man who wants the earth? Oh, no;
He thinks he owns the earth already.
